Greetings Ed,

This obituary notice is for 1963-1965 alums.

Muriel Spellmon, for the class of 1965, wanted me to alert those who might have known her brother, Troy Spellmon, that he passed away on Christmas. I do not have an obituary to share. I remember Troy from back in Junior High. We both attended Franklin Junior High in Minneapolis. Did you also know Troy?

Troy was on the Wrestling and Track teams at Vocational. He served as the Captain of the Track team at one point. Troy studied the metals trade and eventually wound up in the Jewelry business in Luther, Oklahoma. That is where his funeral will be held.

Here is the information Muriel was able to share. There will be two services.

Military Services will be held at:
Fort Sill National Cemetery
Lawton, Oklahoma
January 18, 2024
1 pm

Memorial Services will be held at:
Church of Christ
801 South Birch Street
Luther, Oklahoma 73054
January 20, 2024
11 am

Wife's Contact Info
Theresa Spellmon
930308 S 3290 Road
Luther, Oklahoma 73054

According to Muriel, Troy moved to Luther, OK, when he got laid off in Minneapolis. He worked as a jeweler there. Muriel says Troy lived in the country on nine acres where he raised chickens, beef cattle, etc. That's all I have. Contact Muriel for additional information at 612-227-8825 if needed.

This email will reach 124 potential classmates who knew Troy or were his friends.

May God Bless your continued health,

/Ed Palmer/
